Last Instructional Day of the 2019-2020 School Year

As a reminder, on Friday, May 1, 2020 Governor Andrew Cuomo extended school closures in New York State for the remainder of the school year due to the Novel Coronavirus pandemic.

The Utica City School District calendar is based on 181 days of instruction. As a result, the last day of instruction for all teachers and students is June 16, 2020. Teachers will continue to provide remote instruction to all students up to and including June 16th.

Once again, the last day for student instruction will be June 16, 2020.
