Message from Mr. Timpano:

I wish you and your families a very Happy New Year!

I wanted to remind parents/guardians to check your child's backpack daily for important information. Please continue to talk to students about their school day and the great things they are learning.

January's character trait is PERSERVEANCE. It is important to not give up. It is okay to fail and learn that it helps you grow. That is not always easy.

As weather continues to get colder and snow continues to fall, please remember to follow drop-off and pick-up procedures.

I hope you have a great New Year!
